COMMUNITY HEART

A MESSAGE FROM MARTHA

ADVENTURE FUND

This is the time of year that we are planning our family getaways for fun, relaxation and adventure. If you find that you cannot afford a getaway this year, start small by opening an Adventure Fund account with us. You can set aside any amount of money that you choose on a weekly basis, soon you will start to see your savings add up. Lots of options available to make this easy for you:

- This can be setup as an auto transfer that re-occurs on a certain day each week to move it from your primary account to your fund account, or
- Control your deposits through the mobile app or internet banking for whenever you have a little extra money to set aside, or
- Arrange for a payroll deduction through your employer. The deposit will automatically get routed to your fund account.
- In May of 2025, we will deposit your fund balance into an account of your choosing. With a little planning, you will be ready for the get-away of your dreams in 2025!

-Martha Haymaker, President/CEO

Martha Haymaker Appointed to ICBA Education Committee

West Virginia banker to advocate on behalf of the nation's community banks

Press Release: Grantsville, WV April 12, 2024—The Independent Community Bankers of America® (ICBA) today announced that Martha Haymaker, President and CEO of Calhoun Banks, Grantsville, WV was elected to serve on ICBA's Education Committee. ICBA is the nation's voice for community banks and is committed to its founding mission to create and promote an environment where community banks flourish.

"Community banks, as relationship lenders, prioritize the needs of their customers and serve as trusted stewards of their financial future," said Haymaker. "I'm proud to be a community banker and honored to be called upon to help ICBA safeguard our industry by underscoring the vital role community banks serve in our nation's economy and working to ensure a strong, diversified financial sector that benefits every American."

In addition to helping shape and promote ICBA's national policy positions and programs, Haymaker's duties include engaging in grassroots activities in West Virginia to advocate pro-community bank policies and serving as a liaison between community banks and ICBA leadership in Washington, D.C.

"Martha is an esteemed civic leader and dedicated community banker, generously contributing her time to champion and advance the crucial role of community banks within our financial system," said ICBA Chairman Lucas White, president of the Fountain Trust Co. in Covington, Ind. "We are honored to leverage Martha's talents and resources in support of ICBA's efforts, and we extend our sincere gratitude for Her unwavering commitment to securing a vibrant future for community banking."

About ICBA

The Independent Community Bankers of America® has one mission: to create and promote an environment where community banks flourish. We power the potential of the nation's community banks through effective advocacy, education, and innovation.

As local and trusted sources of credit, America's community banks leverage their relationship-based business model and innovative offerings to channel deposits into the neighborhoods they serve, creating jobs, fostering economic prosperity, and fueling their customers' financial goals and dreams. Five Tips For Online Shopping Safety

1

Be wary of deals and unbelievably low prices that are “too good to be true.”

2

Avoid social media ads that take you to an unfamiliar sight or social media based store.

3

Research the seller and their reviews before making a purchase.

4

Check if website has detailed information about contact information, privacy or disputes.

5

Look for spelling or grammar errors on websites.
